“My spiritual life and closeness to God made me a more loving and caring person. ... Living in community with the sisters was a loving, sharing experience. I especially liked our prayer evenings during the week.”

— Mary, a volunteer from Las Vegas, Nev.

“It was a schedule that didn't overwhelm but allowed us to be really connected to El Refugio and to the people in Silver City that El Refugio serves. ... We were invited to share life and work stories, giving insight into personal values, interests, concerns and the peoples of New Mexico”

— Christine and Frank, volunteers from Massachusetts

“At Catholic Charities I had the opportunity to become involved with the Hispanic community. It was a great opportunity to see the richness of their culture in retreats, Mass and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.”

— Anna, a volunteer from Topeka, Kan.
