PHOTO CAPTIONS

CSJ VOLUNTEERS: (Clockwise from top) Summer volunteers Kate Jones, right, of Red Lodge, Mont., and Ciara Malone of Shawnee, Kan., pick berries in the Motherhouse garden; seamstress Verma Hamel helps women who visit Neighbor to Neighbor learn to sew; individuals and groups — including members of the United Methodist Church — pitched in to help with the renovation and then expansion of the Neighbor to Neighbor center in downtown Concordia.

SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH: Women who commit themselves to community life and Gospel nonviolence as they live public vows of poverty, chastity and obedience

CSJ ASSOCIATES: Women and men who desire to embrace a closer association with the Sisters of St. Joseph in prayer and mission

IN RECOGNITION & CELEBRATION OF
NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK
JANUARY 13 ~ 19, 2013

One mission, four expressions

We live and work that all people may be united with God and one another...

— John 17:21

Stimulated by the Holy Spirit of Love, we move always toward profound love of God and love of neighbor without distinction...
